Restriction on public distribution of essential commodities

1355. SHRI SANTOSH BAGRODIA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state whether Government plan to restrict the public distribution of essential commodities to the selected people only, if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CIVIL SUPPLIES AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (SHRI KAMALUDDIN AHMED): There is no proposal at present to restrict the Public Distribution System to any section of the society.

Public Distribution System in Rajasthan

1356. SHRI SANTOSH BAGRODIA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is any plan to open more public distribution centres in Rajasthan; if so, the details thereof, district-wise; and

(b) by when the entire population of Rajasthan will be covered through public distribution system?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CIVIL SUPPLIES AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (SHRI KAMALUDDIN AHMED): (a) Under the 20-Point Programme, the State Government of Rajasthan has not intimated any target set by them for opening of Fair Price Shops (FPS) in 1991-92. However, under the proposal to streamline and strengthen the Public Distribution System (PDS) in certain identified areas, the State Government has indicated that about 718 additional FPS are proposed to be opened in these identified areas covered under Desert Development Programme (DDP), Drought Prone Area Programme (DPAP) and Integrated Tribal Development Projects (ITDP) during the current year. District-wise break up of the additional Fair Price Shops proposed by the Government of Rajasthan is given in the statement. (See below)

(b) The existing Public Distribution System covers the entire State of Rajasthan. The additional Fair Price Shops are proposed to provide increased access and facility to the population in the identified areas.
